SAINTE-MARIE AMONG THE HURONS

Only in the summertime and early autumn

Visit this 17th century partly reconstructed village about two hours north of Toronto, where the French and the Wendat Indians lived side by side. Meet a few Ojibwa Indians; learn about their way of living. The Martyr's Shrine is walking distance from the village. Then a five minute drive to Midland which is known for its murals. Lunch at a local deli. Would you like a 2.5 hour mid-afternoon boat ride in the Georgian Bay or a swim in the 'Little Lake'?

$295 for two persons, $40 surcharge for third. Includes transportation, all parking, entrance fee to the Indian village, the shrine, and lunch at a local deli.

Does not include 2.5 hour boat ride in the Georgian Bay.
