ST. JACOBS

*Only in the summertime and early autumn.
Thursdays and Saturdays.*

St. Jacobs is a lovely village an hour and a half west of Toronto. Go back in time and learn how Mennonites live their daily lives. A horse drawn carriage takes you into a Mennonite farm. After browsing the market we drive into the centre of the village to have lunch, see the tiny Mennonite museum and the silos. If we feel like it we can view the Kissing Bridge, the only covered bridge left in Ontario. We need to leave early in order to catch the hustle and bustle of the market.

$295 for two persons, $40 surcharge for third.
Includes transportation, ride with the horse-drawn carriage, the Mennonite museum, sit-down-lunch in the village and afternoon coffee with apple pie, which is a Mennonite staple.
