CITY OF TORONTO

Toronto is the world's most multicultural city according to the United Nations. Start with the old part of town, browse at the St. Lawrence market, compare Old City Hall to New City Hall, see the University of Toronto, Bloor Street, trendy Yorkville, Casa Loma, Kensington market, Chinatown. If you wish we can visit the Bata Shoe Museum, the Art Gallery, the new aquarium, Skydome and CN Tower – for thirty years the world's tallest free-standing structure. Lunch: an authentic dim sum or Indian buffet; then sample local beer at the distillery district.

$250 for the whole day for two persons. Includes pick up at your hotel, transportation, all parking, Bata Shoe Museum, lunch. $25 extra for third person.*
