CITY OF TORONTO

Toronto is the world's most multicultural city according to the United Nations. Start with the old part of town, browse at the St. Lawrence market, compare Old City Hall to New City Hall, see the University of Toronto, Bloor Street, trendy Yorkville, Casa Loma, Kensington market, Chinatown. If you wish we can visit the Bata Shoe Museum, the Art Gallery, the new aquarium, Skydome and CN Tower – for thirty years the world's tallest free-standing structure. Finish the day at the historic Distillery District with me inviting you to a Soma chocolate and a coffee at Balsac's.

$250 for the whole day for two persons. Includes pick up at your hotel, transportation, all parking, Bata Shoe Museum. $25 extra for third person.*
